Dear Friends of the Hispanic Bar Association of Orange County:

As President-Elect of the Orange County Hispanic Bar Association ("HBA"), I am honored to invite you to participate in our 30th Annual Scholarship and Installation Dinner, scheduled for Saturday, March 1, 2008, at the Westin South Coast Plaza. This year marks an especially important milestone in the history of the HBA and your partnership will make for an evening of celebration and inspiration.

In honor of our mission, this year's theme will be "Celebrating 30 Years of Promoting Access to Education and Justice." Needless to say, the achievements and accomplishments of our honorees embody these principles; please join us in celebrating our awardees:

- Attorney of the Year: John G. Cruz, California Governor's Appointments Secretary;
- Corporate Citizen: Wells Fargo
- Guardian de Justicia: Hon. Luis Miguel Ortiz Haro Amieva, Consul of Mexico; and
- Lifetime Achievement: Dr. Juan Francisco Lara, Retired Assistant Vice Chancellor, UCI.

Additionally, the evening will be highlighted by a keynote address from the prominent legal scholar, and founding Dean of the Donald Bren School of Law, University of California, Irvine: Erwin Chemerinsky.

Importantly, one of the primary purposes of our dinner is to raise funds for the Wallace (Wally) R. Davis Memorial Scholarship Fund (the "Scholarship Fund"), in addition to raising money for our General Fund. Indeed, for three decades, the HBA has been committed to helping our students graduate from schools of law to courts of law. To date, the HBA has awarded over 40 deserving Latino law students with scholarships.

Enclosed you will find additional information on the various ways you can support the HBA and our Scholarship Fund. If you have any questions or require additional information to persuade you to partner with us, please do not hesitate to contact me at (714) 424-2895 or the HBA Administrator at (949) 440-6700 x253.

Thank you in advance for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Norma García Guillén
President-Elect
